CUUWA

Canadian Unitarian Universalist Women's Association

The Canadian Unitarian and Universalist Women's Association (CUUWA) has a national and international profile with respect to the personal, public, professional and political aspects of women's lives and reflects the core denominational principles of the Canadian Unitarian Council

March 8 is International Women's Day so plan a March service and share your ideas.

Here's one suggestion:

The CUUWA should have its own hymn to sing. All you poets and satirists get to work. Using any familiar hymn tune, write new words appropriate for the organization. Send your suggestions to Gillian Burton (gillian.burton@sympatico.ca) or Mary Lu MacDonald (jbmlmac@ns.sympatico.ca) before March 1, 2013. Perhaps we could have a singing session when in Calgary.

Our brief PAST & BRIGHT future plans

Founding year goals were set and met because CUUWA now has a Constitution and Associate Member Status with CUC. Janice Tait acts as liaison with Toronto CUC office. Council has learned to hold electronic meetings and organized the 2012 Cluster Group AGM.

HOWEVER, Year 2 requires better communication with members and some generative actions.

We've built a web site: www.cuuwa.org
Margaret Linton, Communications

We're planning on-line courses!

We took our first public step: supporting the leadnow.team resistance to Sept 25 Parliamentary private members Bill that revived the reproductive rights schism.

Your renewal is a necessary for our sustainability. Contact Ruth Patrick (mruth.patrick@shaw.ca)
