CANADIAN UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION (CUUWA) Founded in 2011

Vision

The Canadian Unitarian Universalist
Women's Association (CUUWA)
has a national and international profile regarding the personal,
public, professional and political aspects of women's lives.

www.cuuwa.ca

Mission

- To support the development of women-centred projects that raise awareness about women's history, rituals and perspectives;
- To develop, and distribute educational materials that highlight a women-centred lifespan curriculum;
- To acknowledge the creative work of women and grant awards based on merit;
- To influence, educate or inform policy on issues relevant to women at all levels, local, national and international.
- To maintain a monitoring group with two functions:
 - i) internal to ensure that language is inclusive, and ensure representation on denominational committees, task forces, etc.;
 - ii) external to highlight issues such as economic equality, reproductive rights, educational access.

Objectives

- To provide supportive programming consonant with Unitarian principles;
- To assess the ongoing roles and responsibilities of women members within the Unitarian Universalism in Canada;
- To encourage outreach on individual and collective levels to all women;
- To support an annual gathering of Unitarian Universalist women each year.

Initiatives

- Study and Worship materials for International Women's Day
- Quarterly electronic Council meetings
- Building awareness and community
- Supporting partner organizations
- Reproductive Justice
- Develop interactive online activities (Rise Up, Cakes, ...)
- Information-sharing on Facebook
- OWL support
